Entertainment

Duane & Myrna Foster:

When your goal is having more fun, “WE JUST DUET”! Duane and Myrna have found a winning combination in pursuing life with their favorite musical activities and the motto “we just do it.” They sing the popular duets from the 50’s and 60’s, Golden Oldies, Classic Rock, Country, and of course, Hawaiian. We perform in many venues where our music fits the lifestyle. “We’ll retire when we fall off the stage.”

Ron Butler:

Ron is an entertainer with 45 years of experience, performing everywhere from Las Vegas, Reno, Tahoe, and resorts from Alaska to Hawaii. Singing has been a passion since grade school. It's even more of a passion now. Oh, he also managed to squeeze in a brief stint in the NFL with the Denver Broncos and the Detroit Lions back in the ’70’s.

Ron, Myrna and Duane have entertained together, at many senior venues, for the last five years. Life is good when you’re playing and singing with friends.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT
October 2016
Another month of 2016 is gone, seems like the year is just flying by.
The October meeting was somewhat lonely attendance wise. Would sure like to know why. Lack of Bingo interest or what. Speaking of Bingo, congratulations to the winners and thanks to George DeWitte for calling the games again.

Keep in mind we will NOT be having a November meeting as the Christmas Luncheon is scheduled for December 7th. Doors will open at 12:00 noon. An hour later than usual due to the caterer need to set up everything. Don't forget your tickets that's how the caterer knows what to serve you.

We're also collecting canned, nonperishable food for a charity. All contributions will be appreciated.

I have to correct a statement made in last month's Voice. The article was Creating Iridium regarding the book written by Darrell Hillis. When we were approached about running the article, it was too late to include it in the September issue. I told Darrell we would run it in October. As it happens the October issue required inputs earlier than normal. I contacted Darrell and asked if there were any updates. He said there was a launch scheduled for September 19th. So knowing the Voice would come out after the "launch", I prepared the article as if the launch was successfully done. (Being that I had been "galvinized" for some 27 years, I knew that all projects were always on time, successful and in budget - you may add your own snicker, snicker here.) About 10 nanoseconds after the email issues of the Voice were sent out, I got calls from the Iridium team members pointing out the article was in error, the launch did not take place due to technical problems at the site preparing the missiles for transportation of the satellites. So I apologize to those people and asked them to please let us know when things did happen......so far, haven't heard a thing.

Until we meet at the luncheon, have a great Thanksgiving and stay safe on the roads. See you December 7th.

Motorola Solutions Retiree Health Plan Changes

Note: The following applies only to those Retirees whose health benefits are currently administered by "One Exchange".

As we approach 2017 Annual Enrollment for the Retiree Health Plan, we would like to share important changes being made to your Motorola Solutions, Inc ("MSI") retiree health benefits, effective January 1, 2017. The changes we are making are intended to improve the experience of our participants and take their feedback into account.

MSI has decided to transition the administration of the Retiree Health Benefits from OneExchange to Mercer Marketplace 365 ("Mercer") effective January 1, 2017. We believe this new partnership with Mercer will provide a more personalized and responsive service for our participants as they consider health care plan options through the private exchange.

In addition to this notice, you will be receiving a "Welcome Kit," which will provide an overview of the transition process from One Exchange to Mercer, as well as additional details. While the enrollment process for 2017 will be similar to the one used by OneExchange, Mercer replaces OneExchange and will become your main point of contact for plan information, enrollment, and health reimbursement account subsidy administration.

Beginning November 1, 2016 you will be able to discuss your 2017 health plan options with a dedicated Benefits Counselor from Mercer. Your Benefits counselor will explain available options, address your questions, and describe how to enroll in a new plan or re-enroll in your current plan (or a similar plan), if available.

Please watch for the Mercer Welcome Kit in the mail. The kit will provide details about your insurance options and actions you need to take to ensure you have coverage on January 1, 2017 and to maintain your eligibility to receive a subsidy from MSI.

Pick the Right College-Savings Plan for a Loved One

Since they were created in the ‘90s, tax-advantaged 529 savings plans—state-sponsored accounts named after the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) code that created them—have been among the most popular investment vehicles for those that are contributing to a child or grandchild’s college savings.

529 college savings programs offer a tax-free way to save for future college costs. In general, college savings programs don’t have any eligibility income limitations. There are two main types of 529 programs, and each state’s program has its own terms and features:

Prepaid tuition plans allow you to pay tuition in advance and lock in the cost based on today’s tuition prices. These plans pool investments and aim to keep pace with tuition increases in that state.

College savings plans allow you to save money in a special college savings account for tuition and fees, books and supplies, as well as certain room and board expenses. These plans provide variable rates of return based on the available options of investments you select. You can use savings in these types of plans at any eligible public or private college or university nationwide.

Here are some of the benefits of 529 plan investments:

» Tax breaks.¹ As long as the money is used for qualified college expenses, taxes aren’t paid on investment gains. 34 states allow you to deduct or receive a credit for 529 contributions to offset state income taxes. This averages out to a value of $87 for every $1,000 invested.

» Flexibility. You can invest in any state-sponsored plan, regardless of where you live. If your state offers a tax break, you’re likely better off staying in that plan as it can take years of high performance to offset the tax savings. However, if your state’s plan is expensive, it might be worth considering another state’s plan, especially if there’s no penalty for rolling the balance over.

» Age-based portfolios. You want the right mix. Most 529 plans offer age-based portfolios managed by a sponsor; these are often the easiest choice for parents and grandparents. Within those plans the asset mix can vary greatly. It’s important to make sure that as your child or grandchild gets closer to college age, the portfolio’s risk decreases appropriately.

To learn more about 529 plans for you or to contribute to a family member’s college savings, contact an advisor today at contactfp@truwest.org for more information.

This information is not intended to be a substitute for specific individualized tax advice. We suggest that you discuss your specific tax issues with a qualified tax advisor. Prior to investing in a 529 Plan, investors should consider whether the investor’s or designated beneficiary’s home state offers any state tax or other benefits that are only available for investments in such state’s qualified tuition program. Withdrawals used for qualified expenses are federally tax free. Tax treatment at the state level may vary. Please consult your tax advisor before investing.
